Cheryl & Gary

There will be no "inspection" of LONG ISLAND LADY while it is under admiralty arrest. Mr. Morelli will be denied access to the locked dry storage yard at Summit North Marina.

The purpose of the "inspection" was to assess damage to the vessel alleged to have occurred during its arrest last year. Evidence in this matter has been taken and the record is closed. Mr. Morelli produced no evidence of damage to his vessel so I expect his counterclaim will be denied. At any rate, an inspection at this late hour would be moot.
